

Genres

Most Profitable Genre

Budget for each Genre

Most expensive to produce: Animation, and they are the second most profitable genre. Seems like a worth it investment.

Runtime by Genre

Longest run time (avg)
Biography takes longer to gain popularity by the masses, and yet it still does not generate as much profit.

Shortest run time (avg)
Animation, it uses the shortest amount of time to generate profit.

Genre Score

Food for thought
Biography is the clear winner, this makes one wonder whether people are more lenient to the idea of factual filmmaking?

Favorite Genres of Studios

Who's the "come to fame" genre
Action is the highest growth genre, from 1980, we continue to see a steady growth in action genre films.

Who lost their popularity overtime
Over the last two decades, Comedy lost its popularity, this could be due to mediocre profit and viewer score.
